

Officials of the Financial Intelligence Unit of Sri Lanka participated in the “Advanced Cybercrime Investigation Course” conducted by International Criminal Investigative Training Assistance Program, of the United States Department of Justice. The program was held during 22 to 26 January 2024 at Colombo, Sri Lanka. Investigators from the Sri Lanka Police, including officers from the Cybercrime Investigation Division and the Children & Women Bureau, also participated in the event.

This course was mainly focused on Cyber Crime Investigations & Forensics and advanced technologies of Cryptocurrency analysis. Furthermore, the course included case studies and practical sessions to enhance the investigative experience of the participants.